On Thursday 4th November we held our SNAP (Safer Neighbourhood Action Panel) Priority Setting Meeting for Yarmouth North, Yarmouth South, Rural Flegg Villages and Caister and Coastal was held via Microsoft Teams.

Updates were given on the previous neighbourhood priorities and a new SNAP priority was voted in by the panel. The new priority for all four areas is:

1. To promote the Street Safe website, respond to reports and problem solve recurring or standalone but significant issues.

The next SNAP meeting will be held in Thursday 10th February at 7pm via Microsoft Teams. For a link to join or for further information please email: GtYarmouth-OperationalPartnership@norfolk.pnn.police.uk

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA?

As you maybe aware Norfolk Constabulary are targeting locations and hotspots where people feel unsafe. My colleagues and I will be actively patrolling the areas which are felt to be unsafe, which are named and located by you, the local community. Let us know any locations by reporting it on here > www.police.uk/streetsafe

'StreetSafe' is currently our Local SNAP priority in the Rural Flegg Villages Area.

I will again be hosting several more pop-up events in our area in the near future, where we invite you to come and speak with us regarding local issues and concerns;

I will be at Flegg High School, Christmas Market on 27th November and the Hemsby Life Boat Christmas Fair on 12th December.

These and other events will be advertised closer to the time on social media and the Police Connect Service (just search 'Norfolk Police Connect' and sign up).
